

Surrey | Wednesday, November 28, 2018

9:15 AM – 9:45 AM

Use EducationPlannerBC (EPBC) to Help you Plan, Search and Apply for your Future of Post-Secondary Journey

EducationPlanner BC

EducationPlannerBC (EPBC) website provides lots of tips about how students can get started, find programs related to their career aspirations, manage finances, learn how to apply, study, work and more. EPBC makes it simple to find and compare details from BC programs, colleges, and universities. We will walk students through our key features in the Plan and Search sections of our website. EPBC will make it easier for you to create your own educational journey!

9:45 AM - 10:15 AM

Passion vs. Paycheque - Can you have Both?

Centre for Arts & Technology

Through a variety of personal and industry examples, Centre for Arts and Technology will demonstrate how it is possible to have a career in the arts you are passionate about, while maintaining a steady income!

10:15 AM – 10:45 AM

Career Exploration

Kwantlen Polytechnic University

What's a career? And what are my options in BC and the world? How can I explore my career options? What jobs are in demand in your community? If you have ever asked yourself any of these or other questions pertaining you're your career path, this workshop is for you. It outlines resources and steps that can help you to choose a career or educational path and develop a plan for discovering future career possibilities!

10:45 AM – 11:15 AM

Engineering: What to Know and How to Get Started

UBC Engineering

Engineers solve problems and make the world a better place to live. Discover some of the ways engineering impacts your life every day and everything you need to know in order to become an engineer. Students strong in math and science are encouraged to attend.

11:15 AM – 11:45 AM

The Need for Soft Skills and How to Develop Them

Capilano University

Some of the top skills employers look for today are soft skills. Learn more about what soft skills are and the various opportunities that will enable you to develop these necessary skills.

11:45 AM – 12:15 PM

Feeding the Future: BC Agriculture Industry

BC Agriculture Council

Which industry involves environment, animals, food and more? Where can you work with science, technology, and have a positive impact on society? You'll be amazed at the opportunities in agriculture!

12:15 PM – 12:45 PM

Residency and Work Permit Options for International Students in Canada

New Vision Immigration Consultants

New Vision Immigrations Consultants Inc will present the information session targeted for international students who are interested in working and/or interested in becoming permanent residence of Canada after the completion of studies. Will Discuss different options available under immigration Canada to facilitate international student gain work permit and permanent residency in Canada and special program to get residency in BC. Will also discuss options available for married International student to bring his/her spouse in Canada on open work permit basis as dependent spouse of international student.

12:45 PM – 1:15 PM

Why Student Life is Important – The Opportunities, Challenges and Learning that Happens Outside the Classroom

University of Alberta – Campus Saint Jean

This presentation will touch on the pros and cons of being involved in student life with a focus on the good, the bad and the ugly of being an involved student!

1:15 PM – 1:45 PM

Start Now.. Positive Employment Outlook for Automotive Service Career

Automotive Training Centres

Automotive Training Centre Admissions Advisor Michael Henderson.. MBA, BRLS will examine the positive outlook and demand for positions within the automotive industry with reference to recent research and statistics that corroborate the necessity for automotive service technicians and mechanics in future years. Given this demand, this presentation will examine the importance of proper hands on training to output the best in automotive service employees and how Canada's largest private automotive-only school does just that through lots of shop practice time and programs that excel performance in this trade through practicum placement.

*Presentations subject to change up to 24 hours in advance

Presented by

